Priority Areas – Supporting Information

Nga Waituhi

'Kia rangahaua nga tohu o te mana o te reo me nga tikanga hei aarahi i te anga whakamuatanga.' Grants to assist and enable robust research to be undertaken on kaupapa to inform strategic direction. Examples include; researching the state of te reo among marae, Kaahui marae and/or hapuu; consultation; data collation to develop strategic planning; language revitalisation techniques and methods; innovation in the advancement of te reo, tikanga and/or Maatauranga Maaori specific to your marae, hapuu and/or iwi.

Nga Tiwha

'Kia whakatairangatia te kitenge, te paanuitanga, te rongotanga, te koorerotanga o te reo me nga tikanga i nga waahi katoa e whai paanga ai a Waikato-Tainui.' Waikato-Tainui recognises the need to support Marae/Hapu to promote reo and tikanga through multiple mediums of communication to increase the use of te reo, tikanga and Maatauranga Maaori in their daily activities and settings. Examples include; marae signage, marae online profiles, webinars, reo promotion, etc.

Nga Tukutuku

'Kia whakakotahingia nga maramara maatauranga o Waikato-Tainui hei taonga tuku iho. Waikato-Tainui recognises that marae, hapuu and whanau collectives hold unique and substantial knowledge of their own reo, tikanga and Maatauranga Maaori. This fund will support these collectives to provide knowledge transfer initiatives to ensure this unique knowledge and language is sustained. Examples include; mana whenua storytelling, kaumaatua interviews, transcribing, short films, etc.

Nga Whakairo

'Kia whakairohia te reo me nga tikanga ki te ngaakau o te iwi.' Waikato-Tainui recognises that reo and tikanga etched into the hearts of the people will ensure the life of the reo and tikanga for generations to come. This fund will support opportunities for tribal members to engage in waananga reo, tikanga and/or Maatauranga Maaori.

Nga Takarangi

'Kia arotake, kia aromatawai, kia arohaehae i nga hua o te rautaki.' The fund will support opportunities for tribal members to evaluate, assess and critically appraise outcomes of reo and tikanga strategies implemented.
